SSRRR Club Straw Poll results - September 26th, 2007

SSRRR Club Straw Poll results - September 26th, 2007

As Vice President for programs of the South Sound Ronald Reagan Republican Club here in the state of Washington, I facilitated our 5th monthly Straw Presidential Poll at our September 26th meeting in Lakewood featuring Mike Ennis, Director of the Center for Transportation Policy at the Washington Policy Center.

142 members and guests attended, with 123 participating in the poll which was cast by private paper ballot. We had many guests (and a few new club members--welcome) from the Ron Paul campaign and they proved the statement, "politics is won buy those that show up". We also have below the straw poll results from the 4,591 participants who stopped by Republican booth at the Puyallup fair. Official tabulated results from the SSRRR poll followed by the Puyallup fair poll are as follows:

SSRRR Club Straw Poll - May 18th, 2007

As Vice President for Programs of the South Sound Ronald Reagan Republican (SSRRR) Club (www.ronaldreaganclub.org) here in the state of Washington, I facilitated a Straw Presidential Poll on the May 17, 2007.

Michael Medved, <http://www.michaelmedved.com/> was our guest speaker which attracted a club record sell-out crowd of 300! Of these 300 members and guests who attended, 202 participated in our poll which was cast by paper ballot. Official results were tabulated by the very gracious and professional KTTH staff, <http://www.ktth.com/>

Poll results (rounded to nearest whole number) are as follows:

Name	May 17th	April 24th	Change from 4/24
Fred Thompson	34	39	minus 5
Mitt Romney	19	15	plus 4
Rudy Giuliani	17	11	plus 6
Mike Huckabee	11	1	plus 10
Newt Gingrich	10	11	minus 1
John McCain	4	11	minus 7
Duncan Hunter	2	2	no change
Tom Tancredo	1	2	minus 1
Chuck Hagel	1	0	plus 1
Other/Not Sure	1	3	minus 2
Ron Paul	0	1	minus 1
Tommy Thompson	0	1	minus 1
Sam Brownback	0	0	no change
Jim Gilmore	0	0	no change

It appears that the debates have had a very positive change for Mike Huckabee, with significant positive changes also for Mitt Romney and Rudy Giuliani. The "undeclared candidacies" of Fred Thompson and Newt Gingrich declined, which indicates they need to make decisions soon if they have any hope of staying competitive. John McCain's campaign continues to decline and the remaining candidates are not yet getting much traction.

We will continue to conduct monthly Republican Straw Presidential Polls and will post the results on the SSRRRC web site. At our next meeting with speaker Washington Secretary of State Sam Reed on June 21st, we will again conduct this poll.

It will be very interesting and informative to track changes on a monthly basis as the race for the Republican nomination continues.

Sincerely, Dick Muri Vice President

There were 111 members and guests who attended. 87 participated in the poll cast by paper ballot. Official tabulated results by the very gracious and professional KTTH, <http://www.ktth.com>. Results were as follows:

Fred Thompson 34 votes (39%)

Mitt Romney 13 votes (15%)

Newt Gingrich 10 votes (11%)

Rudy Giuliani 10 votes (11%)

John McCain 10 votes (11%)

Tom Tancredo, 2 votes (2%)

Duncan Hunter, 2 votes (2%)

Mike Huckabee, 1 vote (1%)

Ron Paul, 1 vote (1%)

Tommy Thompson, 1 vote (1%)

Sam Brownback, 0 votes, (0%)

Jim Gilmore, 0 votes, (0%)

Chuck Hagel, 0 votes, (0%)

Other/Not Sure, 3 votes (4%)

We will continue to conduct monthly straw presidential Republican nomination polls and will track & post the results on the club web site. At our next club meeting on the 17th of May, we will revote this poll. It will be interesting to track changes on a monthly basis as the race for the Republican nomination continues.
