

Sound Politics

Sound Commentary on Current Events in Seattle, Puget Sound and Washington State

May 07, 2007

Thompson wins Washington GOP straw poll

Not that this necessarily means a whole lot, but it's worth noting. According to the official state party report on Saturday's annual statewide auction dinner:

Fred Thompson was the runaway winner, taking half of all votes cast. Clearly the other candidates have some work to do to match the support that former Sen. Thompson is receiving from grassroots activists.

...

Fred Thompson 50%

Mitt Romney 16%

Rudy Giuliani 15%

Duncan Hunter 10%

John McCain 5%

Tom Tancredo 1%

Tommy Thompson 1%

Mike Huckabee 1%

Newt Gingrich <1%

Posted by Stefan Sharkansky at May 07, 2007 11:47 PM on SoundPolitics.com